OCTOBER 29, 30, 2016

Wisdom 11:22-12:2 2 Thessalonians 1:11-2:2 Luke 19:1-10

THE TRIUMPHANT ZACCHAEUS

Jesus took Zacchaeus where he was and such as he was – a grown man out on a limb, mildly curious. Jesus simply called Zacchaeus, and Zacchaeus came scrambling. Now he was face to face (more or less) with Jesus, who invited himself over to Zacchaeus' house. Zacchaeus jumped at every command and invitation from Jesus. He was like a hungry man, a drowning man, or a desperately searching man. When Zacchaeus invited Jesus home, Zacchaeus saw his chance, and he seized it. That's part of it. The other is that Zacchaeus had to reorient himself. He had to do some things – clean up after himself, sort of. He promised he would give away what stood in the way. In Zacchaeus' small human self, God's imperishable spirit triumphed. That is how it goes and that is why today's responsorial psalm is so lively and welcome: "I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God." This song is for God. This song is for us.

DIOCESAN PRAYER CALENDAR

This week we especially pray for:

Monday	Reverend Wojciech Kuzma
Tuesday	Reverend Monsignor Edward Sheridan
Wednesday	Deceased Consecrated Brothers and Sisters
Thursday	Very Reverend Adam Voisin
Friday	Very Reverend Monsignor Murray Kroetsch
Saturday	Reverend Edward Mahony

Eternal Father, we lift up to you these and all the priests, religious and lay ministers of the world. Sanctify them. Heal them; guide them. Mold them into the likeness and holiness of your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

ALPHA YOUTH FILM SERIES

Young people in Grades 7 through 12 are invited to take part in our parish Alpha Youth Programme. No registration is required, and Alpha Youth is open to all (Catholic, non-Catholic, non-Christian, undecided, questioning, etc.) so students are encouraged to bring their friends. Each of our meetings will include a free meal and ample time for fellowship.

Nearly 30 young people attended on October 4th to enjoy some good food, great fellowship, and the first of twelve topics they will discuss over the course of the year. We will meet again on Tuesday, November 1st from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Young people who missed the first session are more than welcome to join. You can catch up, if you wish, by viewing the first video at <https://youtu.be/SRiRbgUQEVY>.

Please keep praying for the success of this exciting new programme.

PARENTING TIP OF THE MONTH

Most parents want their children to be happy and spend a great deal of their energies trying to ensure this is the case for their children. A new study released by the World Leisure Journal suggests that it may be much simpler than we believe. A variety of leisure activities, including hiking, board games and visiting local tourist attractions, can be combined with time spent at home undertaking activities as a family. Being together produces feelings of satisfaction and happiness. Simple undertakings can be the best way to bond as a family and feel connected to each other. Combine activity with attending weekly Mass and praying together each day and your children will benefit in numerous ways!

MARRIAGE TIP OF THE MONTH

As a member of a couple it is important to decide which is more important to you: being right or being connected. When it comes to conflict, which exists in every relationship, it is important to see the other's view, decide where compromises are possible and together come up with a solution that works for both of you. With a "we" attitude in all you do, including conflict resolution, you can feel more deeply connected and content.

COATS FOR KIDS

As the winter season approaches, once again the Kitchener Knights of Columbus (K of C) want to help by providing warm winter coats to children through our Coats for Kids program. Many families with young children are financially challenged today and you can help by supporting this K of C program to meet their needs. Please bring your gently used or new coats to this parish from October 9th to November 13th and the Knights will distribute to those families who are in need of support. Cash donations will also be accepted for Coats for Kids. The Waterloo Region Catholic Schools will be contacted to aid the Knights to ensure those youngsters will be warm this winter. If you are a family in need, please call the K of C at 519-893-1504. We hope our gift will bring warmth to the bodies, hearts and souls of these precious young people.

2017 MULTICULTURAL MASS CHILD AND YOUTH COLOURING CONTEST

In preparation for the upcoming Multicultural Mass on January 15, 2017, the Office for Refugees at the Diocese of Hamilton is calling all children and youth of our Diocesan community to submit drawings that reflect their thoughts and views on the theme – "What Multiculturalism in Canada Means to Me". All drawings should be mailed to the attention of Erin Pease (Office for Refugees, Diocese of Hamilton, 700 King Street West, Hamilton, Ontario, L8P 1C7) by November 15, 2016. Depending on the number and nature of the drawings received, it is possible that one of the submissions received may be selected to form some of the cover art for the 2017 Multicultural Mass workshop aid!

DID YOU KNOW?

Before the PLC was built "Sunday School" for 4 and 5 year olds was called "Love Doves" and "Love Bugs". During Mass, their lesson was held in the Sacristy or in the library in St. Daniel's School. Now it is called Children's Liturgy.
