MARY, THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD
DECEMBER 31, 2016 AND, JANUARY 1, 2017

Numbers 6:22-27 Galatians 4:4-7 Luke 2:16-21

We learn the great truth that Mary is the Mother of God from St. Luke's Gospel, in the message given by the angel to Mary: "You are going to be the mother of a Son and you will call Him Jesus, and He will be called the Son of the Most High." Once she said yes, the Holy Spirit created in her womb the human nature that God the Son would assume. Since motherhood is of the person and not of the nature alone, and since Mary is the mother of Jesus, true God and true Man, then she is rightly called the Mother of God. After the angel had appeared to her and told her that she would be the mother of Jesus, the Blessed Virgin Mary visited Elizabeth. At Mary's greeting Elizabeth said, "Why should this great thing happen to me, that my Lord's mother comes to visit me?" [Lk 1:43]. The Holy Scriptures teach us that Jesus was both God and man. John writes: "The Word became flesh and lived among us" [Jn 1:14]. St. Paul refers to this event when he writes to the Galatians, "God sent forth His Son, born of a woman," and as, "eternally begotten of the Father." So Bible teaches that Mary was the mother of the God-Man Jesus, not in the sense that she gave birth to Jesus as God, but in the sense that the Baby she bore had the nature of God and the nature of Man.

MARY, THE MOTHER OF GOD

The Virgin Mary was already venerated as Mother of God when, in 431, the Council of Ephesus acclaimed her Theotokos (God-bearer). Her role in the mystery of the incarnation was celebrated on this day in Rome in the seventh century, but was soon eclipsed by other feasts of Mary. Restored to the liturgical calendar in 1931, and to this day, the feast celebrates from a Marian perspective the Word make flesh and so enriches the observance of the Octave of Christmas and provides a solemn beginning to the New Year.

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS

Lord, I know – New Year's resolutions rarely last, but I also know it is good to make them. Sometimes one of them sticks; sometimes one of them really makes it. So this year, I resolve to begin and end each day with a prayer: “Thank you Lord, for the gift of another day.” This year, I resolve:

- to taste what I eat, especially at breakfast;
- to walk more than I sit;
- to listen more than I talk;
- to walk more by faith than by fear;
- to communicate more than to quarrel;
- to sing more in church and in the shower;
- to let the small things slide and the big things be confronted;
- to eat salads and fruit more than chips and sweets
- to live up to at least one of these resolutions.
