SERVING CHRIST IN EACH OTHER

The early Church was both sensitive to the presence of Christ within and among the members, and sensible about what needed to be done. These first apprentices, these imitators of Christ, were inclusive. They chose to address the concerns expressed by the widows, members who had no power and no access to power. But these women and their children had access to a community that valued and welcomed everyone. The first seven deacons the apostles chose were people who were sensitive and sensible. They knew what to do and they knew why they were doing it. They were “deeply spiritual and prudent.”

It is no wonder the community grew enormously and attracted members from all around, even from the Jewish priesthood, a priesthood rooted in a bloodline – the family of Levi. The new priesthood of the faithful is rooted in baptism and in the commitment to live out the death and resurrection of Christ until he comes. Sometimes fallible, sometimes heroic, human beings are mediators of God’s life, members of a royal priesthood. In our concern for one another, God is disclosed. This is what Jesus taught us and promised us. The early community got it right.

THE PRAYER IN THE PARK EVENT

The Prayer in the Park Event on June 4th from 1:00 – 4:00 p.m. at Victoria Park is fast approaching. We long for unity in the Church of Waterloo Region, to seek God's will together, and look to Him for a mighty move in our midst. Ephesians 4 teaches us that through grace given us by Christ and His gifts within the body, we're equipped to serve that we may reach unity in the faith. For only in unity will we be mature and attain the fullness of Christ.

There will be an information and prayer night in preparation for the event on Tuesday, May 23rd at 7:30 p.m. at Trinity EMC in Waterloo (330 Conservation Drive). Please join us to learn more about the event and pray with us.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

We are in need of volunteers to knit/crochet prayer shawls. With your love of knitting/crocheting and prayers we know we can make a difference in the lives of the many people who will wear our prayer shawls at possibly the most vulnerable point in their lives. If you are interested in joining this most important and gratifying ministry, simply call the parish office at 519-893-6960 during office hours.

We are also looking for donations of good soft yarn, 600 grams per shawl and, of course, we welcome monetary donations as well to purchase yarn on your behalf. Please put your donation in an envelope marked 'Prayer Shawl Ministry' and place it in the weekend collection basket.

ACT OF CONSECRATION TO OUR LADY

Immaculate Virgin,
grant that I may praise you
with my total commitment and my personal sacrifice.
Grant that I may live, work, suffer, be consumed, and die
for you.

Grant that I may contribute to an ever greater exaltation
of you.

May I render more glory to you than anyone has ever rendered to you in the past.

Grant that others may surpass me
in zeal for your exaltation
and that I may in turn surpass them.

Thus, in a noble emulation
your glory may always increase, in accord with the desire of the One Who exalted you above all creatures.

In you God is glorified
more than in all His Saints.

Through you God has created the world,
and through you He has called me into existence.

Make me worthy to praise you,
O Immaculate Virgin.
