MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

June 17, 18, 2017

Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14-16; 1 Corinthians 10:16-17; John 6:51-59

THE BREAD OF LIFE

John's Gospel is the only one of the four that gives us the Last Supper as an occasion for a lengthy discourse and not as a time to tell about the shared meal itself, the time of the institution of the Eucharist. John does not write one word about the breaking of the bread at the Last Supper. Everything John wants to say about Jesus as bread broken and shared is said in the sixth chapter, from which today's Gospel is taken. This reading is clearly John's mature and seasoned reflection on the union of Christ's life and ours.

Today's use of the image of bread carries two levels of meaning – bread for the body and bread for the life of the spirit. John frequently uses images that function on two levels. Simply call to mind his use of "living water" (John 4:41). In this story the necessity of living water could be taken literally, but Jesus clearly wanted the woman to recognize that Jesus himself is living water. Similarly, in the Last Supper discourse, Jesus refers to a vine and branches that share the same life (John 15:1-8). He means this literally, and he applies this to himself as the vine and to us as the branches. In the same way, if we do not receive the life of Jesus as one receives bread, we will be as lifeless as a pruned branch, as lifeless as those who ate manna long ago without understanding, or those who received a free meal and whose hunger reached no deeper.

NATIONAL APPEAL

DIOCESE OF HAMILTON

Bishop Douglas Crosby, OMI, Bishop of Hamilton and President of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops, together with other Christian, Jewish, Muslim, Sikh and Baha'i faith communities launched a national appeal to address the famines in South Sudan and the extreme food shortages in Yemen, Northeast Nigeria and Somalia.

Parishioners are encouraged to support this initiative. Instead of giving through the parish, donations are to be made directly to one of the following Canadian Charities:

- Canadian Catholic Organization for Development and Peace:
<https://www.devp.org/en/famine-relief-fund>,
phone 1-888-664-3387

Contributions made to one of these agencies before June 30, 2017 will be matched by the Government of Canada with its recently announced Famine Relief Fund. Donations after June 30th will also be welcome.

For more information about the relief work being done in the above-named countries, please see the Diocesan website at www.hamiltondiocese.com

MEDICALLY ASSISTED SUICIDE – WHY THE CATHOLIC CHURCH THINKS THE WAY IT DOES

With the passage of Bill C-14, medically assisted suicide is now legal – what is at stake with this decision? The Catholic Church affirms the dignity of the human person, so opposes this legislation. Why does the Catholic Church take this position? How can the Church's position be explained in a simple and straightforward way? What is the difference between medically assisted suicide and euthanasia? What response does the Church provide for those contemplating – either for themselves or for a loved one – medically assisted death? What common ground do Catholics share with others who do not necessarily hold the Catholic perspective? Join Fr. David Perrin Ph.D. for a Workshop and Meditative Retreat to discover the answers to all these questions. To be held at the Galilee Centre, Arnprior, from July 7th (7:00 p.m.) – July 9th (12 noon). For further information and to register, go to: www.galileecentre.com (under Workshops & Events)
